STAMP COLLECTORS MEET

When Mr. E. Perry Manville, local philatelist, Prof. Mervin E. Oakes, principal of the Green's Creek school, E. A. Turner, Eugene, and Frank Turner got together at the Turner home one evening last week, they demonstrated the possibility of a live stamp club for Tryon.

The Turners showed their specialized collections of Chinese and United States stamps, and there was much talk of "varieties, singles, blocks, imperforates, errors" etc.; but the highlight of the evening came when Prof. Oakes showed his method of stamps collecting and arrangement.

Prof. Oakes, for many years a teacher of Biology, now director of the Green's Creek school, has harnessed his hobby to his profession. "Philately in Science" he calls his interesting and novel collection. Beginning with invertebrates, they run the gamut from dragon flies of Japanese stamps, snakes of the Straits Settlements, depicting lions and tigers and finally the magic white elephants of India. Likewise, Prof. Oakes has gone into plant life and into the stamps showing musicians and a surprising array of instruments of music from every section of the world. He also has a collection of map stamps, illustrating philately in Geography which ought to make the study of the earth's surface a fascinating one for Johnny and Mary.

Local residents are acquainted already with Mr. Manville's inter-

In addition to the Shirley Temple picture at Tryon's Theater tonight and Tuesday, there will be shown Hearst's Metrotone News, Paramount Variety, and "Shorty Goes South", said to be one of the best short pictures ever made.
