The Oxford Orphans will give their annual concert Friday night at Tryon's Theatre. Fourteen children will present an entertaining program of songs and drills.

Landscape Engineer

Here On Friday

There will be a joint meeting of Rotary, Kiwanis and the Garden club at Hotel Tryon on Friday, August 21, at 1 p. m., for the purpose of hearing Mr. Brant, landscape engineer for the North Carolina highways, and the subject of Highway Beautification.

Lunch will be served at 50c a person and reservations should be in by Thursday noon. Those who cannot come to lunch may come in at 1:30 and take part in the discussion.

Both Legs Broken

In Auto Accident

A truck and a Chevrolet had a collision Tuesday night on the Landrum highway just below the entrance to St. Luke's hospital driveway. The Chevrolet, owned by Crowder Ross, was completely wrecked but no one injured; the truck was only slightly damaged, it is said, but Levi Moore, a colored man about 65 years of age, who was one of the occupants of the truck, was badly crippled. Both of his legs were broken in many places and he is now in St. Luke's hospital.

INDIAN PLAY TONIGHT

The last Indian play of the season will be presented tonight at 8:15 at the Scout Camp. An hour program by 15 Boy Scouts under direction of Chief Blue Sky Eagle, presenting "The Quest of the Evil One". Public invited.
