Entertainment At Mill Spring Friday

The Bible class of the Mill Spring Methodist church will sponsor a musical program (Kirby and Don White) at the Mill Spring school on Friday night at 8 o'clock. Admission for adults 25c. Those under 14—15c.

Roosevelt Train Here

While President Roosevelt and his party were travelling by automobile to Charlotte via Chimney Rock, Rutherfordton, the president's special train of seven cars passed through Tryon at 1:30. Had the journey been made by train the president would have visited Tryon, too. Agent T. G. Miller says that the best rail route from Asheville to Charlotte is by way of Tryon and Spartanburg.

Republican Rally At Mill Spring

Polk county Republicans will hold a county-wide rally on Thursday, Sept. 17, at Mill Spring at 5 p. m. The chief speaker will be the Hon. Clyde Jarrett, candidate for Congress from this district. There will be some other speeches. The public is invited to the rally and everybody is asked to bring well-filled baskets for an old time picnic and enjoy themselves. County Chairman Ed Newman is in charge of the program with Walter Thompson and J. Lee Lavendar and others assisting him.

Officers Named By Green River Baptist Group

Columbus, Sept. 8.—The annual meeting of the Green River B. T. U. association was held Sunday at the Piney Knob Baptist church, in the upper part of Rutherford county with a good representation from the 30 churches in the association present.

The program subject was "Victory For Christ," with the following taking part in the discussion: Victory Through Prayer, F. S. Hall, of Rutherfordton; Victory Through Courage, Ruth Goode, Mt. Vernon; Victory Through Soul Winning, Herman Matheny, Shelby; Victory Through Purpose, C. C. Nanney, Union Mills; Victory Through Faith, George Gibbs, Sunny View; Victory Through Sacrifice, the Rev. Charles B. Trammel, Columbus.

George Gibbs, principal of Sunny View high and grammar schools, was elected head of the organization to succeed the Rev. Charles B. Trammel. Miss Hattie Hensley was named secretary with W. C. Lynch, pastor-advisor. District leaders for next year will be: Verne Allen, Mrs. Yates Walker, Ruth Goode, and C. C. Nanney.—Asheville Citizen.
