Farmers Making Heavy Payments On Their Loans

The Federal Land Bank of Columbia announces that for every $1.00 due the government in August on loans made to farmers, the bank collected $6.57, showing that the farmers in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida are eager to pay up their indebtedness ahead of time. In August the amount falling due in North Carolina was $13,798.78. The amount collected was $137,150.98. Some of it was past due installments showing that the farmers took advantage of the higher farm prices. In the four states $104,691.55 fell due in Aug. and the amount collected was $687,488.25. From May 1, 1933, to July 1, 1936, Polk county received $121,890 in Federal loans.

A STATE GAME

Carl Goerch's State Magazine is offering $10 to the first person answering 57 definitions by naming well known towns and cities in North Carolina. The first answer is given: Definition, To Arouse. Woods. (Answer—Wake Forest). The answers must be in Raleigh by Monday, Sept. 21. The Bulletin is reprinting the questions and has attempted to answer them elsewhere in this issue. See how many of the towns you can name and see if you get the same answers as we did. The correct list will be published in The State. Many of our answers may be wrong. The 23rd and 37th, we could not answer at all. Maybe you can:

- 1—to arouse. Woods.
- 2—It was near here that George Washington turned out to be a sailor.
- 3—He's taking things easy when he does this. What moles do.
- 4—An antiquated means of transportation. A modern means of transportation.
- 5—One of Shakespeare's plays.
- 6—This is sometimes hard to break. A preposition.
- 7—A hill. Well ventilated.
- 8—Quite a few stones. To get on a horse.
- 9—A place of apples and snakes. Forty cubic feet in ship measurement.
- 10—We'll take this every time in place of death.
- 11—You've got more money if you do this. Too heavy to lift by yourself.
- 12—A United States official.
- 13—To burn partially. A sub-
