

FRIGIDAIRE Is Always At The Top

Miss Helen Stearns is hostess this afternoon to the girls of the Katherine Beatson Health House at her home, Welwyn, on Wilderness road. Miss Stearns spoke at the Health House earlier in the summer on Palestine, showing examples of needlework which can be copied by American women, and has in other ways kept in friendly touch with the interests of the girls and women of the Center.

Don't forget to stop at Barnett's Bakery Saturday. Added specials will be a very delicious pineapple roll, 20c a dozen. Several different kinds of pies, chocolate, lemon and coconut, 5c and 25c each. Also Angel food cake, priced very reasonable. Nothing stale, everything fresh. Open at 7 a. m.—Adv.

The Tryon Country Day School will open its second year on Thursday, October 1. The new location is on the grounds of the Mimosa Hotel on Lynn road. The school is set back and stands alone free from traffic noise, and is an independent unit in itself.—Adv. 17, 22, 25.

Ball Room Dancing instruction by Miss Jeanne Huger. Classes Tuesdays and Thursdays. Hours 4 to 5. Rate per pupil in classes $3 monthly. Individual instruction $4 monthly.—Adv.
