To Speak In County

HON. CLYDE R. HOEY

Hon. Clyde R. Hoey To Address Voters In Green's Creek

Hon. Clyde R. Hoey, Democratic nominee for governor of North Carolina, will speak to the citizens of Polk county at the Green's Creek school house on Wednesday, October 7, at 3 p. m. Everybody is invited to attend the meeting and hear this well-known orator, lawyer and statesman.

Distinguished Guests To Arrive Tonight

Lady Nancy Langhorne Astor, of England, Mrs. Chas. Dana Gibson of New York, the Hon. R. H. Brand and daughter, Miss Virginia Brand of England, and Col. W. H. Langhorne, mayor of Warren, Va., will arrive in Tryon tonight from Virginia to be the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Flynn, at their home, Little Orchard. This will be the first Langhorne reunion in over twenty years when all the sisters and brother were together.

Mrs. Flynn's brother, Col. Langhorne, visited Tryon last season but it will be the first visit for her sisters, Lady Astor, Mrs. Gibson, and Mrs. Brand.

In an interview by the Christian Science Monitor a few days ago when she arrived in Boston, Lady Astor said:

"A deeper sense of Motherhood in politics, both national and international, is the greatest need of a strife-torn world today.

"My idea of a good mother is of one who is so good that her love embraces all families.

"I have always found," she said, "that the 100 per cent national is a danger to any country. The best citizen is never a 100 per cent
