Miss Rogers Honored

Mrs. Clarence Lightner entertained this afternoon at her home, "Seven Mountains" in honor of Miss Susan Rogers, whose marriage to Mr. Baxter Haynes will take place on Saturday, October 24th. Four tables of bridge were enjoyed followed by tea to which a number of guests were invited.

Two interesting ads appear in today's Bulletin: The Automatic Heating Co., gives an analysis of the kind of coal best suited for use in automatic stokers. If you have a stoker, it might pay you to read the advertisement. Another ad of interest is a page advertisement of Peeler's Jewelry, offering a special bargain in teaspoons.

David Coker of Hartsville, S. C., a prominent agriculturist of South Carolina has donated his second thousand dollars to the Roosevelt campaign because he believed that the defeat of Roosevelt would spell tragedy for the agricultural West and South.

Mrs. Jed. L. Washburn has returned to Tryon from Duluth, Minn., where she spent the summer.

Read Daily the World-wide Constructive News in

The Christian Science Monitor

An International Daily Newspaper

It gives all the constructive world news but does not exploit crime and scandal. Men like the column, "The World's Day"—news at a glance for the busy reader. It has interesting feature pages for all the family. A Weekly Magazine Section, written by distinguished authorities on economic, social and political problems, gives a survey of world affairs.
