New Voters Register Here Until Saturday

New voters, those who have become 21 years of age since the last election and new comers who have made North Carolina their home for at least 12 months may register this week and vote in the General Election on November 3. Mrs. B. E. Samples is the registrar for Tryon Township and voters may find her at her residence on Howard street every day this week except Saturday when she will be at the old Town Hall on Maple street. Saturday will be the last opportunity new voters may register for the coming election.

SNOW IN NEW YORK

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 18.—A northwest blizzard swept across the Malone area today leaving three to four inches of snow. Automobiles of hunters were marooned in the Adirondack woods. Snow came after a 12-hour rain.

The touch of winter followed below-freezing temperatures reported throughout the state early in the week.
