Kiwanians Elect Officers for 1937

At the business session of the Tryon Kiwanis club held on Tuesday in Columbus with President C. J. Lynch presiding, the following officers and directors were elected for the year 1937: President, K. A. Bowen; vice-president, R. H. Brady; treasurer, C. J. Lynch; directors, Hoyt O. Prince, J. E. Brownlee, L. A. Avant, C. I. Rogers, J. A. Wilson and J. N. Jackson.

Interesting Dairy Meeting on Tuesday

The chief feature of the Tryon Kiwanis program on Tuesday in Columbus was a dairy program put on by County Agent J. A. Wilson who had invited a number of progressive farmers to attend the meeting and bring their purebred registered bulls to exhibit. The cattle attracted a lot of favorable attention. The club meeting was presided over by President C. J. Lynch. In addition to a goodly number of prominent farmers there were a number of prominent out-of-town people in-

Dear Mr. Vining:

I wonder how many Tryonites have heard of the Federal Theatre Program? This splendid organization is at work all over the United States, giving employment to thousands of unemployed actors and actresses, writers, musicians, even vaudeville performers. Here in Los Angeles County 1530 men and women are pursuing their chosen careers in the theatre because of the generosity and far-sightedness of our present government. I use the term "far-sightedness" advisedly, for this great program is doing more for the future of the American stage than any actor, director or producer could hope to do in a lifetime. It is giving the discouraged, the inexperienced, and the ones who just couldn't get a "break" (the theatre is full of these) a chance to prove their ability. Every day talent is being found in the ranks of these formerly useless citizens and they are working their way to the top with regular companies on the legitimate stage or in pictures because of this boost from Uncle Sam. But the greatest service the Federal Theatre is offering is to the American public. We as a people are now primarily "movie-minded", because the movies are inexpensive enough for all. Well, the Federal Theatre is offering really first-class plays, expertly staged at approximately the cost per seat of a good movie. The public is gradually becoming
