

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCT. 24, 1936

Rogers-Haynes Wedding At Erskine Tonight

The Erskine Memorial Congregational church has been beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, yellow candles and autumn leaves in preparation for the marriage tonight of Miss Susan Perry Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Rogers to Mr. Baxter Morgan Haynes, son of Mrs. Baxter Haynes of Spartanburg. The church is very appropriate for the occasion. It is where the bride was christened, where her parents were married, and the little church was named in honor of her grandfather, the late Charles Erskine.

Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, assisted by Dr. Chas. G. Sewall, will perform the ceremony. Miss Hope Rogers, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Mrs. Robert Erskine, of Tryon, Miss Elizabeth Nolen, Mrs. Lindsey Breedon of Spartanburg, Miss Eleanor Rogers, Asheville.

The groomsmen, who will act as ushers, include Messrs. George S. Brannon, Lindsey Breedon, Jr., and John Gordon Floyd of Spartanburg, and Carroll Pickens Rogers, Jr., of Burnsville and Tryon, and Mr. John Eugene Haynes of Spartanburg will be his brother's best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception will be held at Lynncote, the home of the bride's parents. The guests will be received by Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Baxter Haynes, mother of the groom, the bridal couple and the bride's attendants.

Tryon Ties Strong Hendersonville 6-6

The Tryon-Saluda football team battled the strong Hendersonville team to a 6 to 6 tie yesterday afternoon at Harmon Field. Both teams played a strong, rugged defensive game with the Tryon-Saluda boys having a slight edge in the first half. Neither team scored until the last quarter when Hendersonville pushed over a touchdown and failed to make the extra point. Not to be beaten the local team opened up with a strong offensive and ran and passed over a score with Staton scoring on a play over left guard. The extra point was checked when a pass was attempted.

Both teams showed flashes of individual brilliance with Fox, Jones, Staton and Blackwell in the Tryon-Saluda backfield running, passing and tackling well. Green was the outstanding man in the line, doing all the things that a good end should do. The whole line charged well at times but did not show the consistence that they have before. Hollingsworth, Crowder, and Brothers were the Hendersonville team's best ground gainers.

The game was witnessed by one of the largest crowds ever to see a football game in Tryon. The Tryon high school band, under the leadership of Pat Garnett, made its first appearance and helped add to the occasion. The next game on schedule will be with the strong Biltmore team here next Friday.

THE BULLETIN--$1.50 year.