TIM McCOY and NIVEN THRILL SCHOOL CHILDREN

Tim McCoy and David Niven, two well-known movie stars gave the Tryon school children a thrill this morning in the chapel when they greeted the students in person at the local school auditorium. The visitors were introduced by their host, M.B. "Lefty" Flynn. Co. McCoy, just "Tim" to everyone of the children was greeted in Indian fashion by all the students who arose in a body and stretched forth their hands and shouted, "How Tim". When Supt. Schilleter asked how many students had seen Mr. McCoy on the screen all hands went up. Mr. McCoy told of his pleasure at being in Tryon and meeting new and old friends. Immediately after Chapel Mr. McCoy left for Asheville where he is in Ringling Bros. Circus. He spent the week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Flynn. David Niven has been the guest of the Flynns for a week and has consented to be the Hollywood correspondent of the world's smallest daily paper.
