

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, NOV. 10, 1936

Polk Alligator

Many honors and gifts have been showered upon modest Dr. A. J. Jervey whose service to humanity has won him a warm place in the hearts of many people. Some time ago he was given the Beaver Award for outstanding service to the youth of America in the Boy Scout movement. Today a man left the Bulletin office with an alligator to give to Dr. Jervey as a pet. Whether the good doctor accepted the alligator or not is not known. The 'Gator was hardly more than a foot long but when the linotype operator stroked him gently on the back he snapped back at him with trigger quickness. The amphibian was found by William McCurry in Pacolet river near Harmon Field. A. N. Kunkle, who has been a patient for some time at St. Luke's hospital, got the animal this morning to give to Dr. Jervey. He said he might make a good pet and keep company with Miss Calvert's dog.

Red Cross Roll Call on Thursday and Friday Of This Week

During the past year the American Red Cross brought permanent help to more than 131,000 families affected by disasters which struck 39 states. One hundred and five times the American Red Cross rushed trained and volunteer workers—hundreds of nurses—into the field in the wake of flood, fire, wind, earthquake and other catastrophes. The hungry were fed, the homeless sheltered, the destitute clothed and the in-

—Continued on Back Page—

Post Office Closes

The Tryon post office will be closed all day, November 11, in celebration of the Armistice. The stamp window will be open between 12 and 1 o'clock.

Lum Gets One Vote

All friends of Lum and Abner of Pine Ridge will be interested to know that one vote for Justice of the Peace was cast in the Columbus township for Lum Edwards. The official returns for the whole county by precinct will be published in this week's Polk County News. Extra copies may be obtained for 5c each.

Football on Armistice

The Tryon-Saluda team meets Greenville in an Armistice Day game at Harmon Field. Due to the stores closing and prospects for good weather, a large crowd is expected. All the Tryon-Saluda boys are in good shape after the Waynesville game and are determined to get back into the winning column again.

Tryon-Saluda line-up: Green, le.; Heatherly, lt.; Chapman, lg.; Foster or McGeachy, c.; Parker, rg.; H. Shields, rt.; Jacobs, re.; Blackwell, qb.; Fox, lh.; Staton, fb.; Jones, rh. Referee, Schilletter (Clemson); field judge, Jackson (Virginia); headlinesman, Egerton (U. N. C.); umpire, Eargle, (Newberry).

This afternoon, the Tryon-Saluda "B" team tangles with the Hendersonville "B" team at 3:30.