tise your goods, then you should give the customer an opportunity to get to your store as conveniently as possible. There is some parking space near the depot and under Missildine's stairway; merchants' cars and trucks could park in the alley back of Jackson's, Betsy Bird, back of Ballenger's and Slack's and in front of the Polk County Telephone company, and back of the Sinclair Service Station. Any of these places are closer to car owners than many parking spaces are to owners in Asheville or Spartanburg. You business people must do something. Tryon is growing, give the customers your parking spaces and profit thereby.
