

The Tryon Daily Bulletin
SETH M. VINING, Editor
Published Every Day Except Sunday

Mrs. Emily D. Beattie has moved from Tryon Lodge to the B. B. Bishop, Jr., house on Godshaw Hill.

Mrs. P. B. Whittemore of Andover, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Drew in Gillette Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kimberly of Neenah, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Owings of Chicago are spending a week in the J. C. Kimberly house.

C. N. Sayre has returned from Salem, Ind., where he attended the wedding of his daughter, Miss Mary Seyre.

Speaking on Bob Ripley's program Sunday night a son of the former King of Spain said that he didn't care for the formality of royal life and that he was going to make America his home because it was democratic. However, he said it grieved him to know that his people in Spain were killing one another and destroying the beautiful city in which he was born. The count is making his living by writing articles.

J. D. Drew has returned from a visit in the East.

Colored P.-T. A. meeting tonight at 7:30 p. m. All friends and patrons are requested to be present. Hable Hannon, president; L. K. Weils, principal.

TRYON'S
T H E A T R E

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY
November 18, 19

Shirley Temple, Alice Faye, Gloria Stuart in

"Poor Little Rich Girl"

It is impossible to film a more dramatic . . . a more heart touching picture than this latest picture, starring Shirley Temple. She not only touches your heart . . . she climbs right in . . . When you laugh and love her the most . . . That's when you are nearest to tears . . . You will never believe how great this picture is until you see it. With the same program is a delightful Comedy and Travelogue.

Entertain Your Friends

At The

TRYON COUNTRY CLUB

Golf

:-:

Tennis

GREEN FEES—Per day, $1; week, $5; month, $15