

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, NOV. 30, 1936

Gosnell Home Lost By Fire Sunday

The house of Mrs. Catherine Hardy, occupied by Lem Gosnell and family, near Horse Shoe Curve, was destroyed by fire Sunday night about 10:30 o'clock. All clothing and household goods were lost. The first member of the family was awakened when the house began to fall in and he aroused the others in time to escape with their lives. Anyone desiring to help this family may telephone the Bulletin office or see any member of the Gosnell family. At present they are doubling up in the homes of relatives.

Children Overcome By Monoxide Gas

Margaret Bishop, age 12, daughter of Jason Bishop of Campobello, S. C. and Mildred Bishop, 12-year old daughter of Fred Bishop, were almost suffocated by deadly monoxide gas Sunday afternoon while parked in a closed Pontiac car which had a defective exhaust pipe. The children became unconscious suddenly and were rushed to St. Lukes hospital where they were treated and revived.

Mrs. M. A. Laughter, 74, died at 4:30 his morning at her home in Lynn. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Lynn Baptist church with the Rev. L. J. Keels officiating. The deceased is survived by the following children,, Mrs. John Fisher; Mrs. Lindsey Smith, Mrs. Clyde Hooker, Miss Mary Laughter and John and Bill Laughter.

Bazaar Attractions

For two-bits, 25 cents, one-quarter of a dollar, the citizens and visitors of Tryon will have the pleasure of enjoying a delicious Tea on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at the Parish House, when they visit the St. Agnes Guild Bazaar. The tea will be in charge of that connoisseur of fine foods, Mrs. J. W. Richardson.

The St. Agnes Guild members have been busy making useful Christmas gifts to sell at the Bazaar to get money for their charity work. But whether you need anything or not you'll enjoy seeing these beautiful things without extra charge. There will be Peasley dolls on parade, followed by white elephants; scenes of the Holmes' Mountain Gardens, beautiful flowers, orchard blown dresses, aprons and smocks, cakes, candies and many "Misses Laneous" gifts And for a small charge you may have your palm read by a strange, mysterious palmist. You can't afford to miss it. It's all for charity and you will enjoy good food, see a lot of attractive things and meet many friends in a delightful atmosphere.

Injured Saturday

Harley Kuykendall suffered severe injuries Saturday when he was thrown from an automobile that collided with Mrs. W. K. Davenport's car at Landrum. Mrs. Davenport and little daughter were also injured slightly.

Kiwanis Tuesday

The Kiwanis club meets Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon.