

FRIGIDAIRE Is Always At The Top

Fredrick Bowes has returned to Cambridge, Mass. to resume his studies at Yale University. Mrs. Bowes and the children will remain in Tryon until April.

Miss Rachel Jackson of Converse college spent Thanksgiving holidays in Tryon and Atlanta.

Miss Katharine Jones of Selma, N. C. spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother, Mrs. Walter Jones.

In the Beauticians' News, published at Charleston, S. C. appears the following item of interest locally; "The Columbia Barber and Beauty Supply has just recently employed Mr. N. R. (Shorty) Rector, of Tryon, N. C. Mr. Turner, who has been traveling with Mr. Rector and introducing him to the shops, is very much pleased with the progress Mr. Rector is making. We believe, as does Mr. Turner, that Mr. Rector will make a great success over his territory. (Be careful, girls, Shorty is a very nice looking chap, and single, too.)"

The Women's Business Circle of the Baptist Church will meet tonight with Mrs. Noah Wilson.
