

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DEC. 2, 1936

Rotary Head Here On Friday Noon

Ed Johnson of Roanoke, Va., immediate past president of Rotary International will be the guest of the Tryon Rotary club on Friday when the club meets at Oak Hall hotel. President Johnson will be the chief speaker at Friday's meeting.

Midgets Lost To Spartanburg Kiddies

The Tryon Junior Football team lost to the Spartanburg midget team on Monday afternoon by a score of 24-0. This was the last game of the season, but Coach M. B. Caldwell is looking forward to developing a stronger team for next season. Some of the present midget team will have had a lot of experience to take with them to the big B or Varsity team.

The Weather

Cold weather has been gripping the nation the past few days. 70 cargo vessels on Lake Superior were blocked on account of ice. Ice coated highways stopped traffic in the Carolinas between Asheville and Charlotte. Parts of Massachusetts had coldest weather in 40 years. Buses and cars carrying city papers were delayed several hours. Warmer weather with rain is forecast for much of the South today.

R. T. Brooks Manager Of Tryon Toy Makers

R. T. Brooks has taken over the management of the Tryon Toy-Makers and Wood Carvers formerly managed by Robert Erskine for the Farmers Federation.

Edward Sayre Breaks Local Golf Record

The golf record on the new greens at the Tryon Country club was broken Sunday by Edward Sayre who shot a 38. The previous record of 39 was held by Nelson Jackson, Jr. Pro Larry Brooks states that he is going to break Sayre's record.

Plans Are Being Made For Negro Christmas

Mrs. Dudley Smith, chairman of the Christmas Tree program for the Tryon Colored people announced today that the following people would serve with her on the Negro Christmas Tree program this year: Mrs. M. B. Flynn, Mrs. G. L. Canfield, Mrs. Rogers Shafer, Mrs. Robert Erskine and Mr. C. J. Lynch. It is planned to give 200 Negro children 25c Christmas presents. It will take about $50 for this program. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Canfield, Mrs. Flynn and Mr. Lynch will receive contributions from anyone desiring to help with this work.