MRS. HAMMETT DIES AT INMAN

Mrs. Lou Berry Hammett, prominent citizen of the Inman section, died at her home near Inman yesterday afternoon after a brief illness.

Mrs. Hammett was 86 years of age. She was born in Greenville county February 21, 1850, the oldest daughter of the late William and Martha Berry. During her early life she taught school in Greenville county schools. She had made her home in the Inman section for many years.

She was the widow of A. M. Hammett.

She is survived by three sons, W. T. Hammett, Columbus, N. C.; Kieffer and Bryson Hammett, both of Inman; one daughter, Miss Clemmie Hammett of Inman; one sister, Mrs. Ellen Hill, Thurston, Texas, and one brother, Tom Berry of San Antonio, Texas.

Funeral services are to be held this afternoon (Thursday) at 3 o'clock at the J. F. Floyd mortuary, conducted by the Rev. B. L. Blackwell. Interment will follow in the Inman Baptist church cemetery.

The following nephews will serve as active pallbearers: John Hammett, Claude Berry, B. C. Berry, Coma Bull, Furman Bomar and J. T. Bull.

Piedmont Scout Leaders to Meet

Shelby, N. C., Dec. 1.—Scout leaders from the counties of Gaston, Cleveland, Lincoln, Rutherford, Polk, Alexander, Iredell, Catawba, Caldwell, Burke and McDowell, who are members of the Executive Board of the Piedmont Council of the Boy Scouts of America will join together at the Hotel Charles at Shelby on Tuesday night December 8th at 7:15 o'clock to receive reports in connection with a membership campaign and to plan for the annual meeting of the Piedmont Council on Tuesday night, January 12th.

Progress is being made in the extension of the Scout movement in the Piedmont area. Each troop has been asked to enlist at least five new members and to assist in the organization of new Troops. Many Troops have already reached their goal in enlisting new members and are at work in creating interest in the development of new Troops. The aim of the Piedmont Council is to have a membership
