

Tryon Country Day School

Just off Lynn Road, in Quiet, Safe, Convenient Location

HOPE WASHBURN FERDINANDE POPPE SUE SPRAGUE

Tuition for children over 5 years, $15 monthly for attendance of 6 months or more. For a shorter period, tuition is based on length of attendance.

Children under 5, attending from 9:00-11:00 only, $10 monthly.

In addition to sound instruction in basic subjects, in which children proceed at individual speed, Art, Music, Rhythms and Nature Study included in curriculum.

Mrs. Annie Gilbert of Marion, after visiting her brother, F. R. Coggins of Mill Spring, is visiting friends in Spartanburg before returning to her home.

The Tryon Kiwanis club will meet on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon.

TRYON'S THEATRE

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 7, 8

"SUZY"

Cary Grant, Jean Harlow, Inez Courthney, Franchot Tone in a War Time romance of Gay Parree. Thrills that make you hold onto your seat . . . plus the greatest of love stories built around the strangest of dramas . . . offered you with the superb cast named above. Shown to capacity houses the country over . . . and pronounced by all critics as "Grand Entertainment." Shorts and Comedy.

Laundries Guard
PUBLIC HEALTH

Rector's Laundry
Phone 122

Real Estate :: Rentals

W. M. HESTER

Sales Manager Gillette Estates

PHONE 37

We Specialize In Blocking
KNITTED DRESSES AND SUITS

Artex Cleaners

Call 138

WHERE TO GO FOR MOUNTAIN HANDICRAFTS

Let us suggest hand-made gifts for Christmas. Come in and browse around—you can spend hours if you choose. Watch the carding—spinning and weaving.

BLUE RIDGE WEAVERS

(The Shop Unusual)

Trade Street

UPSTAIRS

Peoples Insurance Agency

J. B. HESTER, Mgr.

ALL KINDS of INSURANCE

PHONE 37

Hester Bldg.

Tryon, N. C.