

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9. Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, DEC. 14, 1936

C. B. Woodruff

Charles B. Woodruff, 86, died suddenly about 6 o'clock this morning at his home on Lincourt drive following a few days illness. There will be no services in Tryon. The body will be shipped to Detroit. Mr. Woodruff came to Tryon about nine years ago from Duluth, where he was in the lumber business. Relatives will arrive in Tryon Tuesday.

Hunt News

The Tryon Hounds will meet regularly from Dec. 15 on until further notice. Hounds will leave kennels at 10 o'clock on Monday and Saturday mornings, and at 2:30 on Wednesday afternoons. Meeting places will be announced in the Tryon Daily Bulletin each Saturday by the Secretary of the Hunt.

Monday, Dec. 14: Leave kennels 10 a.m. Meeting place at Block House.

Wednesday, Dec. 16: Leave kennels at 2:30 p.m. Meeting place at Lynch plantation.

Saturday, Dec. 19: Leave kennels at 10 a.m. Meeting place at Many Levels.

M. B. Flynn, Secretary

Sheriff Hines was down in the Hickory Grove section last week investigating the loss of about 300 pounds of seed cotton from the field of Lynn Carson, colored. According to reports the cotton was carried from the field to highway, a short distance, and loaded on a car. The car was traced to the intersection of the roads near Hickory Grove church where the tracks were lost. No arrests have been made as yet.

Christmas Events

(Please notify the Bulletin of any events that should be on the Calendar for the Christmas season.)

Dates so far:

Dec. 16—Donald C. Peattie to address Garden club at home of Mrs. Walter C. Hill at 3:30 p. m.

Dec. 21—Court of Honor at Tryon school for Polk county Boy Scouts, 7:30 p. m.

Dec. 21—'As You Like It' movie at Tryon's Theatre for Lanier club.

Dec. 22—Tuesday: Dance at Pine Crest Inn with Carter Wilkie Brown and Donald Wing as hosts.

Dec. 23—Dance; Miss Betty and Harold Shelnutt, at Sunny Dale log cabin.

Dec. 24—Negro Christmas tree program. Mrs. Dudley Smith, chairman.

Dec. 25—Kwanis distribution of Christmas baskets.

Dec. 25—Presbyterian Christmas tree program at 4:30 p. m.

Dec. 25—St. Agnes Guild dance at Parish House.

Dec. 26—Dance at Biltmore

Dec. 28—Monday: Dance at "Home on the Hill" in Columbus with Bert Metcalf and William Elfrink as hosts.

Brown and Donald Wing.

Dec. 29—Dance at Oak Hall with Pine Crest Inn as joint host.

Dec. 30—Lanier club tea at 4:30 p. m., at the Library.

Dec. 30—Dance at Parish House. Misses Barbara and Dorothy Smith, hostesses.