Blue Ridge Weavers To Move In January

The Blue Ridge Weavers, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cathey, will move after January first to new quarters in the Reibling building formerly occupied by the Dixie Store, according to an announcement for tomorrow's Bulletin. The Blue Ridge Weavers was started by Mrs. Cathey 15 years ago in a small space in their present location over Slack's Pharmacy. As the business grew from year to year more space was taken until the entire upper floor of the Wilkins building was taken. Mrs. Cathey stated today that the new location would make it easier for their customers to come to see them.

Basketball Tonight

The Tryon high boys and girls meet Campobello high in the first game of the season. Both teams have been practicing hard and two good, fast games will be seen. The school band will be on hand to furnish music and help out in the cheering. The girls start promptly at 7:30.

Referee, Girls—Glover.

Referee, Boys—Eargle.

Gillette Better

A letter received Monday from Mrs. Hal Cowan states that William Gillette is still in the hospital but is out of danger. Mrs. Mrs. Cowan is a niece of Mr. Gillette.
