

TRYON MOTOR CO., Inc. Chevrolets

Last night (Tuesday) a meeting was held of representatives of the Polk County Chapter of the Red Cross, the Polk County Unit of the American Women's Hospitals, the Polk County Helping Hand, with Miss Rebecca Hoskins, Polk county Welfare Agent. The object is to effect a co-ordination of all these agencies for more thorough and efficient work. Further conferences will be held before the final organization is made. In the meantime, anyone who is interested in any case of need is requested to confer with Miss Hoskins, who is in Tryon at the City Hall, on Friday of each week, or with Mrs. George A. Cathey of the Red Cross.

J. K. Anderson is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson for a few days.

Buy tickets now for "As You Like It", a movie to be shown Monday, December 21, at Tryon's Theatre for the benefit of Lanier Library. Tickets on sale at Miss Sildine's Pharmacy and Lanier Library.—Adv. 16, 17, 18.

There will be a hot fish and chitterlings supper Thursday night, December 17, at the St. Luke C. M. E. Church. Public invited. Sponsored by Group No. 3. C. R. White, pastor.—Adv. 16, 17.

Real-Silk Hosiery Mills

Represented in Tryon every day by—

Gertrude Morris

Telephone No. 217

THE BULLETIN—$1.50 a year.

Announcement

This is to announce that we will move to new quarters on a ground floor in the Reibling Building on Trade Street after the first of the year. For fifteen years you have come up to us and now we are coming down to you.

Blue Ridge Weavers

George and Sallie Cathey