(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, DEC. 18, 1936

David Niven Leaves

David Niven, well-known British actor, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Flynn for sometime, left today noon in answer to a hurried call from the Hollywood studio to take part in a new movie. Mr. Niven has made many friends during his stay here and already thinks of Tryon as home. He had to leave in such a hurry that he requested The Bulletin editor to tell his friends goodbye and to thank them all for being so nice to him while here. Mr. Niven has promised to be the Hollywood correspondent of "the world's smallest daily newspaper."

Mrs. Butler Wins Prize

Mrs. Archie P. Butler won the attendance prize at the Duke Power Co., At Home Party on Thursday afternoon. The prize was an attractive Pin - It - Up party and was served cake and coffee. Mrs. K. A. Bowen and Miss Mary Morgan assisted as hostesses.

James A. Chapman

James A. Chapman, prominent mill executive and churchman of Spartanburg, and father of Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr., of Tryon passed away this morning about 10:30 following several weeks illness. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Spartanburg at the Presbyterian church.
