

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, JAN. 5, 1937

32 Jumping Horses Arrive In America

New York, Jan 4.—Thirty-six steeplechase horses, the ownership of which will be determined by lot at Belmont Park Sunday, arrived on the American Farmer today.

The horses, all proven jumpers and ranging in age from four to six years, were purchased in France and England by a representative of the subscription committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt association. The 36 subscribers, hoping to stimulate steeplechase racing in this country, contributed $2,500 each to the fund.—Spartanburg Herald.

New Sky Needed

C. M. Howes, a "maniac" from Maine, wants to put an ad in the Bulletin for a new sky as this one is leaking. Turning to the out-of-town newspapers to find out what the trouble was we read:

"Chicago, Jan. 4.—A 'severe' cold wave swept down from the frozen north today.

"Temperatures fell far under the zero mark while forecasters warned the frigidity would extend across the entire midwest. Readings reported in the path of the new cold wave:

"The Pas, Manitoba, -28; Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, -22; Grand Forks, N. D., -20; Jamestown, N. D., -16; Durango, Colo., and Flagstaff, Ariz., -14; Duluth, Minn., -12; Idaho Falls, Idaho, -3; Marquette, Mich., -2.

"The mercury dropped to ten below in northern Wisconsin.

—Continued on Back Page—

Tryon Woman Is Struck By Auto

Mrs. Helen Bassford, of Tryon and Wilmington, N. Y., was being treated at the Mary Black hospital last night for injuries she suffered when struck by an automobile on East Main street about 6 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Attending physicians said Mrs. Bassford was suffering from concussion, a fractured hand, laceration of the scalp and bruises and contusions. Her condition was regarded as serious, but was thought not to be critical.

City Policemen Andy Goslin and W. E. Jett, who investigated, reported last night that Mrs. Bassford had started to walk across East Main street near its intersection with Liberty street when she was struck by a passing car.

She was taken at once to the Mary Black hospital, and about an hour later was reported to have regained consciousness and to be able to talk to physicians.—Spartanburg Herald.

Today's Headlines

Britain aroused by shelling of her ship by Spanish rebels and sends 17 warships to scene of trouble.

Representative Rayburn of Texas nominated to position of Majority Leader of the House at a caucus held on Monday. Representative Bankhead of Alabama will be re-elected Speaker.

Flu epidemic hits New York 107 prisoners at Sing Sing have Rebel airplanes kill 100 in Madrid, Spain.