FILLERS

News is scarce today so here are some fillers:

Gov. Hoey's inaugural ceremonies will be broadcast Thursday from 11:30 to 2 p. m., over WSOB of Charlotte and WPTF of Raleigh.

Diplomats of Europe still diplomating about their Spanish relations.

Intense cold wave moving eastward, according to newspapers. Ohio, Indiana and Michigan expecting much of it.

45,000 people idle as result of automolie plant strikes.

Tryon Motor Co., employees are all dressed in new white uniforms as if ready to serve you food or take out your appendix. They are nice.

Tryon Town Council met Monday night, and the County Commissioners. Only routine business reported.

The first week of the new 5¢ will be gone tomorrow.

Clearance sales are in full force all over the United States now. The Polk County News has a big advertisement today from Ruthersfordton.

You are building something when you encourage a boy to join the Boy Scouts. How about your own boy? Is he in it? Do you attend the Courts of Honor and lend the influence of your presence? Don't have time? What about the Scoutmaster who is giving a lot of time to build character in your boy? Would you do that much for his boy?

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. W. Creasman. Mrs. P. G. Morris and Mrs. Dryman were in charge of the program.
