Divorce Is Granted

Hendersonville, Jan. 5.—Brownlow Jackson, of Hendersonville, former United States marshal for the Western North Carolina district, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mrs. Lizzie May Jackson, on the grounds of two years' separation in Superior Court here Monday afternoon. — Asheville

DISMISSED FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Helen Bassford, of Tryon, N. C., and Wilmington, N. J., who was injured when struck by an automobile on East Main street Monday night, was dismissed yesterday from the Mary Black hospital, where she was confined overnight.—Spartanburg Herald.

HEADLINES

President Roosevelt addressed Congress Wednesday and asked for a more liberal interpretation of the U. S. Constitution.

Congress passed an emergency law prohibiting the shipment of airplanes to Spain, but not in time to catch a boatload already outside the three-mile limit.

Britain sending warships to Spanish area and Europe is tense with excitement as an explosion may burst out any minute.
