

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, JAN. 22, 1937

Tryon Country Club Re-Elects Officers

An interesting session of the Tryon Country club was held Thursday night at the club house when the annual meeting of the membership was held and reports of achievement were heard. The membership was held and reports the good work done in building the grass greens and in keeping up the club property that the same officers were returned as follows: President, B. L. Ballenger; Vice-president, Nelson Jackson, Jr.; Secretary-treasurer, K. A. Bowen; and Directors besides the Officers are J. C. Kimberly, Julian Calhoun, C. H. Conrad, F. P. Bacon, Mrs. Bernard Sharp, M. B. Flynn. A vote of thanks was given Golf Pro Larry Brooks for his faithful work on the greens during the dry season last summer.

Today's Headlines

The flood situation in states along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers is very serious and the American Red Cross is rushing relief as quickly as possible. Thousands of people are homeless. Radio broadcasts are being made constantly from scenes of danger. Some areas of counties are completely isolated by high water.

Chicago this morning reported a temperature of 8 above zero, and a heavy blanket of snow. California is suffering freezing weather.

The war situation in Spain is about the same. The automobile strike shows no change. Citizens are again ordered to flee.

Melbourne Smith Author of Paper

The American Cotton Manufacturers Association has just issued in pamphlet form a comprehensive study of the cooperative program of the cotton manufacturers and the cotton farmers. The booklet is a reprint of articles by Melbourne Smith of Tryon, published in the Daily News Record. Mr. Smith's work shows what the states are doing, results being accomplished, plans used, how mills are cooperating, and suggestions for further work. Mr. Smith is the Southern representative of Fairchild Publication and the pamphlet presenting his articles is entitled "Upland Cotton Improvement in Quality and Staple in Southeastern States" through cooperation of cotton farmers, cotton manufacturers, state and federal cotton specialists.

Service at Chapel

Rev. Dean Smith of Chesnee, S. C., will conduct services on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Warrior Mountain Chapel.

BASKETBALL

Tryon Girls Athletic club played an interesting game of basketball Thursday night and lost by one point to the Columbus girls by a score of 17-16. On Wednesday night at Tryon the local girls defeated Sunny View 23-9 and the Tryon boys defeated Sunny View 47-20. Manager J. V. Hall is very much pleased with the work of the Tryon teams and has expressed his appreciation for the cooperation of everyone.