

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 25, 1937

Lester S. Weinberg

Kingstree, Jan. 24. —Lester Stanley Weinberg, 43, for many years district agent of a life insurance company here, died today.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at Sumter.

Survivors include his widow, the former Miss Claudia Jones and a daughter, Mary; six brothers, Dr. Milton Weinberg and Dr. Abe Weinberg of Sumter, Bertram Weinberg of Columbia, J. A. Weinberg of Washington, Leon Weinberg of Manning, Julien Weinberg of Manning, and three sisters, Mrs. Jerome Brandeis of Philadelphia, Mrs. Nettie Geiger of Manning and Mrs. Irma Weinberg of Sumter. —Spartanburg Herald.

No Kiwanis Tuesday

On account of a Joint meeting with the Rotary club on Friday at 1 p. m. at Oak Hall hotel there will be no Kiwanis meeting this Tuesday. G. N. Lowden, a representative of the Federal government G-Man service will address a joint meeting of the Rotary and Kiwanis at Oak Hall. Any Kiwanian desiring to bring a guest with him should notify the secretary, Seth M. Vining as soon as possible in order that the hotel may be notified of the approximate number of plates to serve.

Miss Maggie Hill

Miss Maggie Hill, of Saluda passed away today noon at St. Lukes hospital following a lingering illness. She was a sister of Mrs. Mack Thompsan.

Fletcher — Burnett

The Sunday Charlotte Observer published the announcement of the engagement of William C. Burnett of Tryon to Miss Carrie Belle Fletcher and also printed an attractive picture of the bride-elect.

The announcement is as follows: Of interest to society in North and South Carolina is the following announcement:

"Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Fletcher of McCall, South Carolina, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carrie Belle, to William Clingan Burnett of Tryon and Charlotte, North Carolina.

Miss Fletcher has made her home in Charlotte for the last few years, where she is a teacher in the city schools. She is quite popular with friends in this city and McCall.

Mr. Burnett is the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Burnett of Tryon, but makes his home in this city, where he is a popular business man. No date has been set for the wedding.

Learning To Freeze

R. H. Brady, secretary-treasurer of the Avant Electric Co. has just returned from Atlanta, Ga. where he attended a several days convention of the Frigadaire Corp. and learned five more important points about the better way of making ice and preserving food. Further details will be published in advertisements in this newspaper from time to time.