

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 9, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 27, 1937

Basketball

Tryon high school and Sunnyview split a double-header Tuesday night at the Tryon gymnasium. Tryon girls lost to Sunnyview girls and Sunnyview boys lost to Tryon boys. Scores not reported.

Tonight at the Tryon gymnasium the Tryon Athletic Association girls will play Columbus girls, and the Tryon Athletic boys will play the Tryon high school boys in what is expected to be two of the closest games of this season.

Wesley Brotherhood

Wayne W. Creasman, a native of Louisville, Kentucky, will be the chief speaker at the Wesley Brotherhood supper Thursday night at 7 o'clock at the Tryon Methodist church. Mr. Creasman will tell about Louisville and answer questions about the locations and conditions of various points in the flooded area where he has travelled many times.

Today's Headlines

Officials working to strengthen levees on Mississippi river as biggest flood in history is expected. Ohio river is falling at Cincinnati. Drinking water is a big problem in flooded sections. Mayor of Louisville has asked for 500 policemen from other cities as the Federal troops can not be used for this purpose unless a riot or rebellion was taking place.

President Roosevelt rebukes President Sloan of General Motors for refusal to attend conference to discuss strike situation.

Polk County Gives

$900 to Red Cross

The total amount of money received from Polk county citizens for the flood sufferers has climbed from $700 reported yesterday by treasurer James B. Hester to $947.50 today noon. The amount is expected to go over $1,000 as the citizens of Soumerco, Cooper's Gap and Green Creek have not been heard from. The Pacolet Knitting employees at Lynn donated $20. The Lynn Baptist church gave $10. L. R. Wells, principal of the Tryon colored school reports as follows:

"The entire student body and faculty of colored high school decided to give a donation toward Red Cross Relief Fund today instead of buying candy. So I am pleased to submit to this Chapter of Red Cross five dollars and twelve cents ($5.12)"

In the collection from the colored school were 82 pennies which gives an indication of the widespread contribution from the little children.

Polk County Schools Are Ordered Closed

Columbus, Jan. 26.—Due to impassable roads, Polk county school were closed on Monday. County School Superintendent P. S. White said they will remain closed until road condition have improved and the schools will not reopen earlier than Monday, February 1. Schools closed are Stearns, Sunny View, Mill Spring and Green Creek.