

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, FEB. 5, 1937

Donald Culross Peattie Addresses The Lanier Club

Tryonites were given a real treat on Thursday afternoon at the Lanier library when Donald Culross Peattie, the noted author, gave six short essays from his "Book of Hours", which was completed this week after three months' work and mailed to his publishers on Wednesday. Following the address a large group from the audience gathered around the author to congratulate him on his new work. During the business session, the president, Mrs. Harkness Smith, announced that Mr. Charles Ingalls was directing a Booth Tarkington play, "Clarence", which would be presented at the Tryon school auditorium during the week of Feb. 22, and that the proceeds would be given to the library. During the first week of March, Professor Spry of Converse college will give a concert of chamber music with the violin, 'cello, and piano. Proceeds for this concert also for the library. New members joining the club were Dr. Helen Roberts, Mrs. J. T. Arledge, Mrs. Earl C. Hammond and Mrs. E. S. Parsons. During the social hour in the Holden Reading Room Mrs. Ralph Erskine and Miss Claire Bell were the hostesses and Mrs. G. L. Canfield and Mrs. Harkness Smith poured tea. The table was beautifully decorated with yellow daffodils and janelicas and lighted yellow candles.

Mr. Keels to Preach Boy Scout Sermon

Rev. L. J. Keels, pastor of the Tryon First Baptist church and a former Scoutmaster, will preach the annual Boy Scout sermon at the Tryon First Baptist church on Sunday week, February 14, instead of this Sunday. Scoutmaster W. A. Schilleter and the Tryon Scout Troop No. 1 will attend in a body.

Next Week National Boy Scout Week

Tryon will join the nation next week, February 7-13, in celebrating National Boy Scout week, and the 27th anniversary of the incorporation of the Scout movement. Mayor E. E. Missildine has issued a proclamation which is published in this week's Polk County News, pointing out the achievements of the Boy Scouts and recommending the cooperation of all citizens in observing Boy Scout Week for the purpose of strengthening the movement here. President Roosevelt, honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America, will address by radio a message to all Boy Scouts at 5:30 p. m., on Monday, February 8th.

Only $5.00 Is Needed To Make $1,500 for Red Cross

Treasurer James B. Hester reported today that the total donations from Polk county to the Red Cross fund for the flood sufferers was $1,495.83 of which $13.80 was the net amount received from the Sunday afternoon movie.