Rector — Brock

A marriage of interest to many friends throughout this section was that of Miss Jennie Sue Rector, daughter of Mr. N. R. Rector of Tryon to Mr. Marion Brock, son of Mrs. Julia Brock of Tryon and grandson of the late Senator J. C. Fisher. The wedding took place on Saturday afternoon in Spartanburg at the Manse of the Second Presbyterian church with the Rev. J. D. Henderson officiating. The young couple were high school sweethearts for several years and both were graduated from Tryon High School last year. The groom holds a responsible position as salesman for Rector's Laundry where he has been for a number of years. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Brock are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher.

Edwards — Hilyar

Miss Alice Edwards of Mill Spring and Mr. Myron Hilyar, Jr. of Deerwood, Minn. were married Saturday evening at 7:30 at the Mill Spring teacherage by the Rev. D. M. McGeachy, pastor of the Tryon — Columbus Presbyterian churches. The teacherage was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns, lighted candles and baskets of carnations. Miss Clara Edwards, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Mr. John L. Edwards was best man. Miss Irene Edwards played the wedding music. Just before the ceremony, Mrs. J. Robert Foster sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly". Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for Minnesota where the groom is in business with his father. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Edwards. A graduate of A.S.T. College at Boone she has been a member of the Mill Spring school faculty for a number of years.

What Do You Think?

A lot of discussion has been going on about the President's proposal to reorganize the Federal Judiciary. On Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon at the Kiwanis meeting, Attorney M. R. McCown, a close student of the constitution, will discuss the proposal. Anyone desiring to be at the meeting should notify the Secretary Seth M. Vining.
