Court Of Honor

The County Boy Scout Court of Honor will meet tonight at the Tryon School building. The Colored Court for Troop No. 2, Tryon will be held at the Colored School immediately after. Scout Executive R. M. Schiele will preside at both places.

Scout Service Sunday

The Annual Boy Scout sermon was preached Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Tryon First Baptist church by the Pastor, the Rev. L. J. Keels, who emphasized the character building qualities of the movement. Dr. George Farrand Taylor gave a brief history of Scouting, Vice-President Nelson Jackson, Jr. of the Piedmont Boy Scout Council told of the work of Scouts in the Council, and Scoutmaster W. A. Schilleter expressed the need for leadership in the Scout Movement here and gave a brief account of the work in Tryon. The Tryon Scouts were dressed in uniform and gave the Boy Scout cath. A vocal selection was rendered by Miss Margie Bolinger with Mrs. Keels as accompanist. Mr. Eugene Turner, Y.M.C.A. secretary, who leaves today for China, dismissed the congregation with prayer.

No City Delivery

Tryon doesn't have city mail delivery. The new green mail box installed on Saturday in front of the Post office was put there for the convenience of people who want to mail letters at night after the outer door of the Post office is closed. Postmaster W. H. Stearns states that the mail will be collected only once a day, at 8 a. m., just to get the mail that has been deposited during the night.

Lieut. Gov. R. E. Price of Division One of Carolina Kiwanis will make an official visit to the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday at 1 p. m. at Hotel Tryon.
