

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, FEB. 18, 1937

Teachers Meet

The Polk county school teachers association will meet on Saturday morning, February 20, at Stearns school, according to an announcement by County Superintendent P. S. White.

Basketball Friday

The Tryon high squad of basketball players have their home engagement this Friday with the teams from Green's Creek. As formerly the games with the visitors will be close and hard fought from the first to the last. This will be one of the best games of the season and always draws a large crowd. The girls start their game at 7:30 and the boys at 8:15. Referee, Eargle; umpire, Glover.

Polk In Henderson

The newly organized Garden club in Hendersonville has for its first officers two former Polk county citizens. The president is Dr. Walter W. Carpenter, son of Mrs. Lula Carpenter of Landrum. He began his practice of dentistry at Mill Spring. The vice-president of the club is Mrs. J. E. Shipman, sister of Clerk of court John A. Arledge of Columbus. Polk paves the way.

Closed Monday

The Tryon Post Office will be closed all day on Monday, Feb. 22. There will be no rural mail delivery and the general delivery window will not be open at all on Monday. The banks will also be closed.

Editorial

A group of six Democrats of Polk county have written to Senator Bacon and Representative McDowell strongly recommending that NO LOCAL LAWS be passed; but that our legislators lend their best efforts to obtain STATE WIDE ELECTION LAW REFORMS as recommended by the Democratic State Executive Committee. If these recommendations are carried out it will mean that the Absentee Ballot Law for Polk county will not even be introduced in the legislature. Senator Bacon was elected on a ticket to repeal the absentee ballot law and received more votes than any other candidate because the people of this county wanted to get rid of the Absentee Ballot law. Its abuse by so called politicians in stealing votes and stuffing the ballot boxes has been a disgrace to the county and to the Democratic party. It is the concensus of opinion among most Democrats that the people who live in the county should be the ones to decide on matters of local government and not those living elsewhere and that an absentee ballot is not necessary. Just what course our representatives will follow is not known. Mr. McDowell of Polk has joined two other representatives in introducing a bill to increase the commissioners of Madison county and appoint Democrats in order to get a majority over the duly elected Republicans in that county. Mr. McDowell has already stated his opposition to the repeal of the Absentee Ballot Law for Polk coun-

—Continued on Page Four—