

Today's picture section of the Asheville Citizen shows David Niven and Virginia Bruce sitting out a dance in one of Hollywood's cafes.

Fred Barnard of Tryon, and Burgin Pennell, Asheville attorney, were the principal speakers at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lions club yesterday at the S. and W. cafeteria.

Mr. Barnard, who is connected with the Tryon Homespun shop, at Tryon, spoke on the making of homespun. The speaker traced the history of homespun manufacture in Western North Carolina.—Asheville Citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward leave today for a ten days trip to Florida. They will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Jackson at St. Petersburg. From there they will go to Miami and back up the East Coast via Atlanta, Ga., for a visit with Bill Ward, Jr., who is a student at Georgia Tech.
