Basketball Tonight

The Tryon Athletic girls will meet the Columbus school girls tonight on the local court at 7:30. They have played several times this year and every game has been very close, so this game is expected to be a tussle until the final whistle.

The Tryon Athletic boys will play the Landrum Town boys. Both teams are strong and should be an interesting and hard fought game.

Morgan-Rockhill

Mrs. C. W. Morgan entertained Wednesday evening at her home honoring her younger daughter, Miss Mary Morgan, whose engagement to Mr. William Rurode Rockhill of Fort Wayne and Terre Haute, Indiana, was announced during the evening. The marriage will take place in June. Five tables of bridge were in play, with tally cards at each in a design of wedding bells bearing the announcement. At the close of play, high score prizes were presented to Miss Ruth Andrews and Mr. K. A. Bowen. Miss Morgan is well known here, having lived in Tryon since childhood. She attended Tryon schools and Maryville college, Maryville, Tenn. For the past few years she has been associated with the local ranch of the Duke Power Co. Mr. Rockhill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howell C. Rockhill of Fort Wayne. He also attended Tryon high school and was later a student at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. At present he is employed in Terre Haute.

C. D. Elliotte Passes

Champ Davis Elliotte, 77, well-known farmer of Columbus, died on Wednesday night at 10:30 at the home of his son, W. E. Elliotte, in Cooper Gap. He had been in poor health for several years.

Funeral services will be held some time Friday afternoon at the Columbus Baptist church with the pastor officiating. Interment in the nearby cemetery.

The deceased is survived by the following children: C. V. Elliotte of Columbus; W. E. Elliotte of Cooper Gap; Frank Elliotte of Washington, D. C.; an adopted daughter, Mrs. Oma Jones, of Norfolk, Va.; one step-son, W. G. Egerton of Mill Spring; two step-daughters, Mrs. M. H. Whitesides and Mrs. W. H. Ledbetter, both of Rutherfordton, Route 3.

Mr. Elliotte was born in Rutherford county.
