Basketball Results

(By Bertha Blackwell)

The Tryon Athletic girls and the Columbus school girls' game last night ended with a tie of 15-15. This was a fast and hard fought game on both sides. The score was close from start to finish.

The Tryon Athletic boys lost to the Landrum Town boys in the last few seconds of the game by a score of 28-26. One of Tryon's outstanding players sprained his knee and was forced to leave the game. The Tryon boys were in lead until this accident.

Arthur D. Wilcox

Arthur D. Wilcox, 64, for many years a resident of Saluda, N. C., died at Holly Hill on February 25. Burial services will be held at Milledgeville, Ga., on Saturday. Mr. Wilcox was born at Midway near Milledgeville, on August 11, 1872. He is survived by three brothers, W. F. Wilcox of Atlanta, Capt. J. W. Wilcox, U. S. N., Louis Wilcox, Augusta, Ga., and four sisters, Mrs. L. J. Anderson, and Mrs. Arthur Tufts, of Atlanta; Miss L. Clifford Wilcox, of Saluda, and Mrs. Linlock Dunlop, of Macon. The deceased was unmarried.

Jones-Ellison

A marriage of interest to friends throughout the county was that on Saturday evening of Miss Jennie Jones to Mr. Rogers Ellison. The ceremony was performed by Judge Dewey Foster in Spartanburg. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Jones of Saluda and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ellison of Tryon. The young couple will make their home in Tryon, and Mrs. Ellison will continue her work as an operator at the Ponce de Leon Beauty Shop. Mrs. Ellison is a graduate of the Saluda high school and of the Asheville Beauty Academy. The groom is an employee of the Southern Mercerizing Co.
