

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1937

Polk County District Scout Court of Honor

Mr. Schiele presided in the absence of the Chariman Dr. C. Arthur Lincoln, who was ill. Serving on the Court were the following men, Dr. A. J. Jervey, Seth M. Vining, Maj. Bernard Sharp, W. A. Schilleter, Fred E. Swann, E. Perry Manville, R. H. Brady, Rev. D. M. McGeachy and G. Isham Henderson.

Scouts appearing before the court for advancement were as follows:

Tenderfoot Rank: James Camp, troop 1, Tryon; James Foster, troop 1, Tryon; Lloyd Ravan, troop 1, Lynn; Bill Smith, troop 1, Lynn Ned Fisher, troop 1, Lynn.

First Class Rank: Locke McGeachy.

Merit Badges— Civics: Henry McGeachy.

Electricity: Nelson Jackson, Edward Manville, Wm. Elfrink.

Music: Seth Vining, James Jackson, John McLean.

Pathfinding: Richard McClure.

Printing: John McLean.

Public Health: Frank McFarland.

Scholarship: David Cromer.

Stamp Collecting: Nelson Jackson, III, Jimmy Jackson, Seth Vining.

The new Lynn troop was present headed by Scoutmasters Ethan Rippy and Earl McKinney. The entire troop stood up in recognition and gave the Scout salute.

Awards of previous Court were made, after which the meeting closed with the repeating of the

Continued on Back Page

New S&L Plan To Insure Borrower, Investor Offered Locally

Announcement of a plan of insurance for borrower, investor members of the Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Association, was made today by M. R. McCown, secretary and treasurer of the association. This special plan of protection was worked out with the Security Life and Trust Company, of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mr. McCown, in a letter to the borrowers, investors, making announcement, told of the essential features of the plan, whereby the borrowers may at a small cost insure his life for the unpaid portion of his loan. This guarantees, Mr. McCown said, that the mortgage would be paid off immediately at death, thereby leaving the family of the borrower, a home free of debt. To the investment shareholder, the insurance provides for payment in cash of the full par value of the share immediately at his death. Premiums may be paid at the offices of the association along with regular installments on share.

E. E. Goodloe, Jr., and O. P. Earle, Home Office representatives, of the Security Life and Trust Company, will be here for several days to assist Mr. McCown and his associates with the installation of the plan. Mr. Goodloe, in commenting on the flexibility of the plan, pointed out that it is adaptable to those whose share has been running for several years, as well as to new subscriptions. He said that the idea of this special

Continued on Back Page