The Scoutmaster

"There isn't any pay for you, you serve without reward
The boys who tramp the field with you but little could afford,
And yet your pay is richer far than men who toil for good For in a dozen different ways your service shall be told.
You'll read it in the faces of a troop of growing boys, You'll read it in the pleasure of a dozen manly joys.
And down the distant future, you will surely read it then, Emblazoned through the service of a band of loyal men.
Five years of willing labor and of bothering a Troop Five years of trudging highways with the Indian cry and whoop,
Five years of camp fires burning not alone for pleasure's sake But the future generation which these boys are soon to make.
They have no gold to give you, but when age comes on to you They'll give you back the splendid things you taught them how to do,
They'll give you rich contentment,
and a thrill of honest pride,
And you'll see your nation prosper,
and you'll all be satisfied."

Pinckney Will

Speak Tonight

The Rev. John A. Pinckney, new rector of Holy Cross Episcopal church at Tryon, will speak at the church of the Advent here at 7:30 o'clock this evening, the Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, rector, announced last night.

Mr. Pinckney will be the sixth and probably the last of the guest speakers, it was said.

Mr. Pinckney recently succeeded Dr. Burnett as rector of the Tryon church, Dr. Burnett having retired from active service.

The new Tryon rector has been appointed head of the young people's junior summer conference at Kanuga, Episcopal center near Hendersonville.

He is said to have made many friends among the young people of the Carolinas.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinckney will be the guests of the Rev. and Mrs. Pendleton while in the city—Spartanburg Herald.

Madrid, March 16.—Fifty government planes, in a mass offensive against insurgent held Brihuega, dropped 760 bombs in a daring aerial battle today, Madrid defense officials announced.
