

FRIGIDAIRE Is Always At The Top

James W. Leake, colored shine boy was arrested one day this week for something like forgery. He was trusted to deposit money in the bank for his employer. He would go up the street borrow pen and ink and sign the name of a bank official to the deposit slip, put the money in his own pocket and bring the deposit slip back to his boss. This system worked for awhile until the boss's account got short. Crime doesn't pay, and the shine boy is now in jail.
