Local Boys Working With "Uncle Sam"

Jim Brock has re-enlisted in the United States Army after nearly a year's stay at home. He is now at Fayetteville and will leave Monday for New York where he will be joined by Burley Chapman of Tryon, who left Tryon today.

U. S. Navy headquarters issues the following press notice:

Horace Edwin Early who was accepted for enlistment at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Asheville, N. C. was enlisted in the U. S. Navy at Raleigh, N. C., on Mar. 17, 1937. He was transferred the same date to the U. S. Naval Training Station, Norfolk, Va., for a twelve weeks course of instruction. Upon completion of this instruction Early will return home on from a ten to seventeen days leave of absence. Upon his return to the Training Station, Early will be transferred to some ship of the U. S. Fleet. Early is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Ransome Early of Route 1, Saluda, N. C. Prior to his enlistment Early was a member of the Tryon and Saluda High schools

Books Wanted

Perhaps the children in Tryon and those here for a short stay have magazines and story books they could give to other children living in the country. If so, they can be left at the Tryon Book and Paper Shop where Miss Washburn will receive them and send them out.
