

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., MARCH 24, 1937

Sunnydale Log Cabin Opens

Five Events Thursday

Jean West of the Ladies Shop, Asheville, will have a showing of Sports, Afternoon and Evening clothes all day at Oak Hall hotel.

The opening of Sunnydale Log Cabin at 5 p. m.

The Wesley Brotherhood meeting at 7 p. m., at the Methodist church. Election of officers and other important business.

Greta Garbo and Robert Taylor in "Camille at Tryon's Theatre for last showing here, beginning at 7:45 p. m.

Boxing exhibition at 8:30 at Young Men's Association club.

Dance at Pine Crest

Pine Crest Inn will give a dance Friday evening, March 26th, 9:30 to 12:30 for the visiting boarding school, high school and college students as well as for the young people of the dancing set in the community. On account of the shortness of time no invitations have been issued, and this form of notice is the only one to be given. Al Dunn's orchestra has been secured to furnish the music. All visiting young people are especially invited.

Cooking School Thursday

The second cooking school for the colored people will be put on Thursday evening at 7:30 by the Duke Power Co., at their kitchen. All colored cooks are especially invited. Prizes.

Attractive New Home for Dances, Parties, Teas or the Individual Seeking Refreshment.

The beautiful log cabin, Sunnydale, surrounded by spacious grounds just off the highway at the southern entrance to Tryon, will be formally opened to the public on Thursday afternoon, March 25th. The building designed by John R. Ferguson, local architect, and built by J. S. Kell, is one of the most attractive of its kind in this section, and is destined to be a mecca for young and old who want to entertain and be entertained.

A modern soda fountain, and electrically equipped kitchen enable Sunnydale to provide prompt service to the motorist who wants a light lunch in a hurry. The spacious ball room, attractive tables, linen and silver service offer ideal facilities for formal dances, dinners and parties.

Sunnydale, owned by H. L. Shelnett of Tryon, will be under the management of Mrs. Blanche Smith, a graduate of Orangeburg College, and an able and pleasing hostess who has operated tea rooms of her own in some of the larger cities of the South and North, and guests are assured of appetizing menus and a hospitable reception at all times. The soda fountain service will be in charge of Mr. Joe Anderson, who has had

.....Continued on Back Page.....