

MRS. ROBERT B. ST. JOHN GIVES DELIGHTFUL TALK

Mrs. Fred J. McDonald was hostess to ladies of the Erskine Memorial Society (Congregational) at her home on Markham road on Tuesday afternoon. The speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Robert B. St. John, of Walton, N. Y., gave a most inspiring and unique talk "Concerning Two Books". During the short business session, the program chairman, Miss Mary Drew, announced the April meeting would be at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Lincoln and would be in the form of an evening social when all the congregation of the church would be invited.

Following the program the guests were invited to the dining room for tea with the hostess and her daughter, Mrs. Bryant Donaldson. At the table pouring tea were Mrs. G. K. Meneely and Mrs. Nelson Jackson, Jr.

The annual Presbyterian church supper will be this evening at 7 o'clock at the Presbyterian church with the ladies in charge. Following the supper the annual business meeting will be held.

GRETA GARBO and ROBERT TAYLOR
in

CAMILLE

With Lionell Barrymore

These two great lovers whose paths now cross—and the rest is the beauty, the thrill and the glowing glory of love.

In the strong young arms of Robert Taylor, Garbo reposes. How fitting that the love story of the Parisian youth and the fatal beauty Marguerite, should be portrayed by these romantic stars !!
