

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., MARCH 31, 1937

Spartanburg Civic Music Association

The Spartanburg Civic Music Association is holding its annual membership campaign this week for next winter's season. Tryon members have enjoyed this year's series which included among others, Rethberg and Pinza, and The Ballet Russe. The season membership is $5.00. No subscriptions for the next season will be accepted after this week. Membership in this association entitles the subscriber to attend concerts held by associations in Asheville, Greenville, and any other cities having associations. Those interested in subscribing should call one of the following as soon as possible: Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. George Brockenbrough, Sam Bingham, Jr., Baxter Haynes or George Brannon. All new members may attend the Concert of the National Symphony Orchestra in Spartanburg on April 6th, as guests of the Association.

Lynn Scout Meeting

As the roll was called each Scout answered with the statement of a good deed done. Then the boys were divided into two groups with Hanford Rhodes, patrol leader, and Hollis Constance, assistant patrol leader, giving instruction in first, second class and tenderfoot Scouting. Two games were played and the pledge of allegiance given before dismissal. — Hollis Constance, (Scribe).

"Europe In Africa"

W. B. Weigel, who delivered an interesting address at the Tryon Kiwanis club on Tuesday in which he told of the activities of European nations in Africa, will address the Tryon Young Men's Association on Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the club rooms. All men of the community are invited. A couple of boxing matches will be held.

Dance Tonight

A dance will be held tonight, (Wed.), March 31st, at Sunnysdale for the members of the Tryon Riding & Hunt club, the Trails association, and their guests. Admission $1 per couple or single. All members please come. This dance for the benefit of the Helping Hand.

For Better Cooks

The third of a series of cooking schools conducted by the Duke Power Co., for the colored cooks of the community, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Moore of Greenville, S. C., will be held on Thursday night at 7:30 in the kitchen of the local office. Last Thursday over fifty persons attended the school which is free to all colored people interested in better cooking. White people are encouraging their cooks to attend these schools in order to profit in the enjoyment of better cooked foods at a saving of electricity and time.