

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1937

Today's Headlines

Spanish Rebels advance 10 miles on broad front. Army of Basque reported routed from mountains.

Errol Flynn, Hollywood actor injured yesterday in Spain from a machine gun bullet.

Storms in Louisiana aid Florida damage property.

Federal Reserve Bank buys U. S. Bonds to check upsets.

The big ship Bremen rushing to rescue of German freighter, Borkum shipwrecked from 36 hour storm at sea. 37 persons aboard.

Governor Murphy of Michigan thinks peace in sight for automobile situation.

Ford and Union still offer on Kansas City plant closing.

Fifty organizers left Atlanta today to sign up for strikes in Southern cotton mills.

The D. A. R. is making plans to keep alive the fire that has been burning in Polk County for 150 years.

95 forest fires are being fought in West Virginia.

29 Americans are jailed at Spanish-French border.

At least 87 persons were killed on the Nation's highways over the week-end as safety experts noted with alarm a rising trend in fatalities and medical experts looked into another phase of accidents—their aftermath.

Spring Gymkhana Well Attended

Farwell And Abernethy Judges; Winners are Named

Exciting and amusing games and races on horseback were enjoyed here Saturday afternoon at Harmon field by a large group of interested spectators and participants in the annual spring gymkhana sponsored by the Tryon Riding and Hunt club and directed by Charles J. Lynch.

Artur Farwell and Sam Abernethy were the judges.

One of the most exciting features of the program was the game of mule polo, in which two teams competed, Carter Brown's Skunks and Sam Abernethy's Limburger Cheesers. The final score was 1-0 in favor of the latter.

Altho presented entirely for amusement, the gymkhana is a test of good horsemanship and skill as well. The looking glass race, in which riders sit backwards on horses and guide them by small mirrors held in the hands, was a good example of this. Miss Mary Barber won first place in the race.

Final results in all games, were as follows: Keg and Can race, first, Nelson Jackson, second, Miss Mary Adams, third, Miss Selina Lewis.

Egg and Spoon race: First, Miss Martha Boyd, second, Miss Carol Erskine, third, Miss Selina Lewis.

Romeo and Juliet race: First, Miss Audrey Hassler and John Ferneding; second, Miss Ann Bingham and Samuel A. Bingham; third,

Continued on Back Page