

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N. C., WED., APRIL 7, 1937

Horse Show Cups Now On Display

The beautiful trophies for the 12th Annual Tryon Horse and Hound Show are now on display at the Blue Ridge Weavers on Trade street. The window was attractively decorated by Mrs. M. B. Flynn and includes all the trophies to be given this year as well as the permanent ones. A new trophy for class No. 12—the George T. Little Memorial trophy, was donated by R. H. Johnston of Charlotte. Mr. Johnston has won twice the beautiful Biltmore trophy and if he succeeds this year it will be in his permanent possession. Another new trophy is the Green Hunter, donated by Nora Langhorne Flynn. The Geo. D. Wick Working Hunters trophy for class 18, has been won twice by Carter P. Brown and twice by Walter C. Hill. If either of these men win this year it will be theirs permanently. If some one else wins! For class No. 11 is the John M. Ogden trophy from Atlanta, Ga. The Martha Lightner trophy for class 13 has not been won, but the trophy donated by Col. and Mrs. Daniel Boone for class 13 has two strong contestants in Capt. T. E. Boudinot and Lieut. D. D. Hedekin, who have won the trophy previously and each needs only one more win to get it. Who will it be. Other new trophies to be given away this year are the Betsy Bird trophy for class No. 10, three-gaited, open; the Oak Hall trophy for class No. 9, five-gaited; and the

Continued on Back Page

Interesting Cast For Fresh Fields

The Garden club play, "Fresh Fields", which will be presented at the Parish House on Thursday and Friday nights of this week has a very interesting cast as follows:

Lady Mary Crabbe—Mrs. Wm. Dobbyn.

Lady Lillian Bedworthy—Mrs. F. W. Sprague.

Mrs. Pidgeon—Mrs. E. P. Williams.

Mr. Tom Larcomb — C. D. Stevens.

Una Pidgeon — Miss Betty Doubleday.

Tim Crabbe—John Fuldner.

Miss Swaine, a secretary—Miss Patty Slagle.

Ludlow, a butler — Frank Arthur.

Lady Strome — Miss Ainslie Anthony.

Mrs. Dobbyn is taking the part that Margaret Anglin took in the original play on its first tour of the larger cities.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Louis Fuldner.

Fire Destroys R. Owens Home

Five-room house occupied by Robert Owens and family in Columbus was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night about 11 o'clock. The fire is said to have first caught in the ceiling about 9 o'clock and was thought it had been extinguished. Only a few household goods were saved. The Owens are living temporarily with Mrs. Edwin Constance.