Here They Are

Looking over the cast for Fresh Fields to be presented tonight and Friday night at the Parish House we learn that Mrs. Wm. Dobbyn of Athens, Ga. plays the part of Lady Mary with subtle and gracious humor. She is always good. Mrs. F. W. Sprague from Sinclair Lewis' hometown, Sauk Center, Minn., a favorite in many plays here and at Duluth, takes the part of Lady Lillian. Miss Betty Double-day of Tryon, is a talented young lady with pep and real temperament as Una Pidgeon. Mrs. E. Pue Williams of Bel Air, Md., always upsets the house with laughter, and in this play as Mrs. Pidgeon, she strikes the funny bone of the most sophisticated. Miss Ainslie Anthony, from the North, with refined routine, is the dignified Lady Strome, and gives an excellent performance. Miss Patricia Slagle of Tryon is the efficient, gracious secretary, Miss Swaine. C. D. Stevens of Colorado, is one of Tryon's favorite leading men with the qualities of Robert Taylor and Warner Baxter. He is Mr. Tom Larcomb, a sheep rancher. John Fuldner who has played many leads in Tryon, and since in New York and with the Robin Hood players at Arden, takes the part of Tim Crabbe. Frank Arthur, Tryon's woodcarver, has cut himself a new role as Ludlow, the butler.

Polk County's new school board consisting of R. M. Hall, chairman, George E. Bell, vice-chairman, J. Robert Foster, H. P. Sharpe, and Belton Feagan, met this week and re-elected County Superintendent, P. S. White of Columbus.

NBC wired Mr. Gibbs Wednesday night to come to New York and tell some of his interesting experiences that have happened on his mail route. Mr. Gibbs, who will retire on May 29 after thirty years service, organized the two rural routes at Mill Spring before becoming a carrier himself. Friends throughout this section will enjoy hearing him on Sunday afternoon for Mr. Gibbs has been very active in community affairs for the whole county. He has worked dilligently for better educational facilities, better farming programs and for church and fraternal organizations. He is a progressive farmer himself and has an unquenchable thirst for
