

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28 TRYON, N.C., MONDAY APRIL 12, 1937

FIRE

The Tryon fire department was called out about 2 p. m. Sunday afternoon to extinguish a roof blaze on the home of J. Vernon Hall. Damage slight.

In a Nutshell

Two ladies, the wife of an Austrian and the wife of an Irishman, will be hostesses at a Dutch treat buffet supper on Tuesday night at the American Sunnydale Log Cabin, for the members of the Tryon Riding & Hunt club and the exhibitors of the English Horse and Hound show. The supper will be in much demand, and parties of first part who expect to eat with parties of the second part should make reservations at once by calling Sunnydale.

Meeting Tuesday

The Polk County Chapter of the American Red Cross will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Parish House and at 4:45 the Polk County Helping Hand Society will meet at the same place. The public is invited.

Libel Tonight

Some people are liable to have a good time in Tryon tonight when they see the stage production of "Libel" put on at the Parish House by the Asheville School. Admission is $1 per person. There are no reserved seats and tickets can be bought at the door. Show starts at 8:30.

SAMS FUNERAL SET FOR TODAY

Former Polk County
Farm Agent

Mars Hill, April 11.—Funeral services for John Robert Sams, 88, who died Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Anderson, of Mars Hill, will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at Mars Hill Baptist church.

The Rev. W. E. Lynch and the Rev. J. R. Owen will officiate. Burial will be in Mars Hill cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Herbert, Ned, Richard and John Anderson, and Jack and Karl Carter, grandsons of Mr. Sams.

Mr. Sams, who was a former president of Mars Hill college, is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. F. S. Ashcroft, of Mars Hill, Mrs. Mary Goodner, of Murrinstown, Tenn., Mrs. H. P. Whitehurst, of New Bern, and Mrs. J. L. English, of Bayfield, Colo.; two sons, E. E. Sams, of Kinston, and C. L. Sams, of Raleigh; four brothers; four sisters; 23 grandchildren; and 32 great-grandchildren.

Mr. Sams served as farm agent of Polk County for eight years and was the Madison County farm agent for four years. He was a native of Washington county, Tenn.

Classes at Mars Hill college will be suspended during the funeral service.
Asheville Citizen