

Tryon Daily Bulletin

SETH M. VINING, Editor
Published Daily Except Sunday

Mrs. H. M. Layman and little daughter, Ann, are visiting Mrs. Layman's father, Owen S. Bird.

Capt. and Mrs. E. H. Walter and two children Shelden and Amabel, and Mrs. Lewis Meredith Smith all of Washington, D. C. are guests of Major Arthur Smith at Tryon Hills.

Mis Ruth Manville who is home for the holidays from Duke University has as her guests, Miss Anne Dives of Reading, Pa., also a student at Duke.

FOR SALE: 2200 acres for ranch, country estate; hunting preserves, well-timbered, large streams of water, good bottom land, ridges, benches, elevations 1000 to 2500 feet. Very accessible. A bargain. Apply to G. Harrison Bridgeman.—Adv. tf.

ANTIQUES—The brick House Antique Shop, 454 E. Main St., Spartanburg, S. C. has a shop full of lovely antiques on display. All periods; glass; china; copper prints, rare books etc. List your wants, we are hunting all the time. Only 28 miles to shop. Advertisement thru. Saturday.

TRYON'S THEATRE

Wednesday and Thursday

"MAID OF SALEM"

—With—

Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurry

Lovable Wives and

Livable Kitchens

Romance lives again for the happy wife who discovers the chance of escaping Kitchen drudgery. Give your wife freedom from kitchen toils—help her to keep that youthful's wetness—let romance live again . . . enjoy the convenience of a modern electric kitchen.

Start with a new electric range—the last word in cooking satisfaction. Electric cooking is economical, clean, convenient, time saving - labor saving. It is just as cheap to cook on an electric range as it is on an ordinary stove.

DUKE POWER Company

PHONE 210