

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(The Smallest Daily Newspaper In The World)

Vol. 10, Est. 1-31-28

TRYON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1937

Last Session Of Cooking School

The last session of the Duke Power Co., cooking school for colored people will be held tonight at 7:30. At this time diplomas will be awarded cooks making the grade. The school has been very successful under the direction of Mrs. Frank Moore of Greenville.

Notice

The Associated Garden clubs of Spartanburg announce their annual garden tour, April 29th, from 10 a. m., to 7 p. m. Many lovely gardens of varied types in Spartanburg and vicinity will be open to the public on that day. Starting point for the tour will be from the lawn of the First Presbyterian church, East Main street, where tickets will be on sale and information and guides available. Entire proceeds will be donated to Camp Franklin, the Tuberculosis Associations summer camp for children.

Who's Gonner Run?

County Attorney Jack Arledge started the political pot to boiling today when he filed his name for the office of Mayor of Tryon. At the time of going to press he was the only candidate for any town office, and candidates have only until Saturday to file. A mayor, three councilmen and three cemetery commissioners must be selected.

Abernethys Buy In Hunting Country

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Abernethy of Bronxville, N. Y., have purchased a tract of land in the hunting country adjoining the newly acquired property of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Blackwood, which joins the Tower Hill property of Clifford McDonald. The Abernethy tract is known as Bunt Chimney and is located on the Ridge Road. The sale was made through C. J. Lynch.

Singers

The Vaughan Quartet of Lawrenceburg, Tenn., will appear at the Saluda high school auditorium on Friday, April 30th, at 8 p. m.

J. T. Arledge for Mayor of Tryon

J. T. "Jack" Arledge filed today as a candidate for Mayor of Tryon in the coming election to be held on May 4. Mr. Arledge who is the junior member of the law firm of Masenburger, McCown & Arledge, is a son of Clerk of Court John A. Arledge of Columbus. He is a native of Polk county, a graduate of Wake Forest college with a law degree. He is vice-president of the Tryon Rotary club, a deacon in the First Baptist church, and a director of the St. Luke's Hospital Association. He began his law career in Tryon soon after graduation at Wake Forest and has taken a leading part in civic affairs since coming to Tryon.