Methodists Change Their Pageant Plans

The Tryon Methodists will hold their Bishop's Crusade picnic supper tonight at 7 o'clock as previously planned and they will listen to the broadcast of Bishop Moore's address at 7:15, but the pageant which was to follow this program has been changed to Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in order to avoid conflicting programs tonight at the school house and Parish House. The Methodists say "Bring your picnic baskets and eat with us. You will have plenty of time to attend the piano recital at the school or to hear Fraulein Anny Rutz at the Parish House. Then come to our pageant Sunday morning."

For Scouts

Marion, April 22.—Nelson Jackson, prominent Rotarian and Boy Scout leader of Tryon, in discussing boy problems before the Marion Kiwanis club Tuesday evening said there are no bad boys nor good boys as they are commonly thought of.

"All boys", he said, "are men in the making. They have potential possibilities for leadership and great usefulness to their community as mature citizens, but their future service depends upon the kind of leadership that gives direction to aspiring youth."

Mr. Jackson, as guest speaker, urged the Kiwanis club to assume a larger measure of responsibility in promoting Boy Scout work.—Asheville Citizen.

Eight Candidates File For Office

Mayor E. E. Missildine filed today for re-election to the office of Mayor of Tryon. Dr. Missildine has been a leader in civic and business affairs for over 40 years and needs no introduction to Bulletin readers. He has been Mayor for the past ten years and the record of achievement by the town government has been one of the most outstanding in the state.

Commissioner William Marshall Mallew has also announced for re-election. Commissioner Ballew has served the present term and the unexpired term of his father, the late T. W. Ballew. He is a well-known groceryman and an active member of the Tryon Fire Department.

Commissioner J. V. Hall, elected recently by the present board to succeed Senator F. P. Bacon, has also filed for re-election. Mr. Hall is manager of the Ballenger Co., grocery department, and active in business affairs of the community.

Claude Fisher, one of Tryon's younger business men who is now manager of the local branch of the Farmers Federation, has announced his candidacy for commissioner of the Town of Tryon. Mr. Fisher has made an enviable record as manager of the Federation here.

C. M. Eargle, superintendent of the Home Ice Plant filed today for the office of Town Commissioner. Mr. Eargle has made Tryon his home for several years. He is a graduate of Newberry college. He
